Description

Mythical 806 pilot's chronograph known as "small counters" (pieces from this series were also signed with the Breitling - Lip double marking). This piece belonged to a Dassault Aviation test pilot in the 1970s.

Steel case with horn handles, bidirectional multifunction notched bezel (used as a slide rule) in silver (now with a green patina), clipped back (signed and numbered). Superb black lacquered dial with BREITLING logo at 12 o'clock, version with three hollowed small counters in silver, painted indexes with Tritium eggshell patina and luminescent skeleton hands. Functions: hour totalizer at 6 o'clock, small seconds at 9 o'clock, minutes at 3 o'clock, chrono arrow second hand in the center.

Delivered with 3 straps, a vintage black BREITLING pilot leather strap with signature buckle, a white leather strap and a Tabac-colored rallye leather strap.

Movement: Mechanical manual winding Caliber signed BREITLING / Venus 178 Swiss.
