Description

A rare chronograph from the Navitimer collections produced in the late 1990s, it was the first watch in the world to feature two 60-minute counters, representing a technical innovation at the time.

Large aperture case with screwed back, engraved slide rule (with logo and numbering). Patinated unidirectional bezel with 60-degree graduation. Black dial with a multifunction slide rule and four silver counters with circles: 60-hour totalizer at 6 o'clock, small seconds at 3 o'clock, 24-hour dial at 9 o'clock, date at 12 o'clock, minutes read by the large central arrow hand, large red-tipped chronograph seconds hand. Applied indexes, luminous dots and green luminescent skeleton hands.

Used BREITLING pilot's strap in black shark leather with vintage deployant buckle and two leather straps, one in patinated tan strap and one black pilot's leather strap with pin buckle.

Movement: Mechanical automatic winding BREITLING / 33 caliber based on Eta 2892. A2 Swiss.
