Description

Rare professional diver's watch in stainless steel with a screwed back (signed Zenith, numbered, and decorated with the famous embossed star).

Bidirectional bezel with 60-minute scale and a dot at 12 o'clock. Patinated black dial with a silver-tone minute scale graduated on the flange, large applied indexes, a large rectangular “Lollipop” seconds hand, and luminescent Tritium arrow-shaped hands (cracked). Date window between 4 and 5 o’clock. Crown bearing the ZENITH star logo.

ZENITH steel strap with open-link design and original deployant buckle (Gay Frères 1/69), identical to the one on the vintage El Primero chronograph, along with a custom slate-colored nautical leather strap and a vintage commando fabric strap.

Movement: Mechanical automatic winding caliber signed ZENITH / 2552 PC Swiss.

Included: a professional Aquastar diver's compass from the 1980s.
