Description

An imposing rectangular reversible watch from the Reverso collections.

Steel case with dual time zone display and sliding window. Fluted bezel and screwed back on the side of the case (signed and numbered). On one side, a silver Art Deco-style dial with a "guilloché" center displaying hours, minutes, and a hollowed small seconds sub-dial at 6 o'clock, a sliding date window at 12 o'clock, and blued steel sword-shaped hands. On the other side, an anthracite black dial with a round railway-track minute track displaying the hours for the second time zone and a small recessed round sub-dial at 6 o'clock (day & night with 24-hour display). Skeletonized luminescent sword-shaped hands. Sapphire crystal.

JAEGER-LeCOULTRE used strap in black alligator leather, a vintage 1930s-style custom leather strap with an original signed deployant buckle, and a black crocodile-style sport leather strap with a pin buckle.

Movement: Mechanical manual winding calibre JAEGER-LECOULTRE / 986 – 48-hour power reserve (19 jewels), Swiss-made.
