Description

Pilot’s chronograph with flyback function, inspired by the Manufacture’s Type 20 models from the 1950s–1970s.

Round polished steel case with "guilloché" flange and a unidirectional brushed steel bezel graduated to 60m (with a luminescent triangle at 12 o’clock), screwed back (signed, numbered, and engraved with “Type 20 / Transatlantique”). Black dial with three slate-ringed sub-dials: oversized minute counter at 3 o’clock with a sage-leaf-shaped hand, as seen on vintage models. Small seconds at 9 o’clock, hours and date in a window at 6 o’clock, and a large Alpha-style chronograph seconds hand. Arabic numerals, applied nail-head-style indexes, and skeletonized hands with luminescent tips.

Black alligator strap with a pin buckle and a vintage-style havana-colored rally leather strap with a pin buckle.

Movement: Mechanical automatic winding caliber signed BREGUET / Flyback 582QS-1 Swiss.
